ALLOWANCE

Claims 2-24 were rejected in the Office Action entered on 10 October 2007.

Applicants appealed that rejection with a Notice of Appeal on 13 December 2007.

The Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences reversed the Examiner in a decision entered on 4 September 2009.

Claims 2-24 are allowed.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: In deference to the 4 September 2009 Board Decision, which provided the following rationale, the claims are allowed over the prior art.

Given that the Examiner has not established that Shimura discloses "code segments" as recited in claim 2, we conclude that Appellants have shown error in the Examiner's rejection of claim 2. Because independent claims 9, 14, 18, and 23 all contain similar "code segments" limitations to those of claim 2 that we have discussed, and are rejected on the same basis as claim 2, we also cannot sustain the rejection of remaining independent claims 9, 14, 18, and 23. (Board Decision, page 7)

Therefore, the allowable subject matter is found in the following limitations:

(Claim 2) a server code segment manager coupled to the application code transformation manager, for parsing the client application in the native binary format into a plurality of code segments, said parsing of said code segments being dynamically performed based on actual server-side and client-side execution overhead, network bandwidth efficiency and client-side storage requirements on a per client basis, and configured based on predicted code segment

Art Unit: 2123

usage or prior code segment usage history, at least one of said plurality of code segments being transmitted to the client via the network

(Claims 9, 14, 18, and 23 recite similar "code segments" limitations to those of claim 2)

In combination with the other recited elements of the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
